

ROLL WITH US

Let's go.

Are you a whiz at fixing phones? Do you love fiddling with the toaster? Does Grandma always call you when the lights go out?

Become a Train Car Electrician!

SALARY RANGE

$38.33 – $50.10
an hour

"The roof is the ceiling. You can start at the lowest possible job and get to the highest-level job."

— Michael Thomas,
BART Train Car Electrician

Train Car Electricians fix the analog and digital electronics on our trains. It's a hands-on, challenging career with support for growth and advancement.

- Premier medical, dental, and vision benefits
- CalPERS retirement program
- Free BART transportation for employees and dependents

BART is an Equal Opportunity employer.

Join the team that moves the Bay Area. For more information, visit bart.gov/jobs and search for "Transit Vehicle Electronic Technician."