Reynardus, Esq. Exec. Director: Eduardo I. Diaz, Ph.D.	The Panel consists of nine members, five appointed by the BCC from nominees submitted by community organizations, and four appointed by Panel itself. The Panel meets once a month. There are five paid staff positions. The IRP is charged with external fact-finding and dispute resolution. Although the majority of complaints are against the Miami-Dade Police Department, the Board of County Commissioners (BCC) created a panel with the authority to review complaints against any department, thus recognizing the need for all departments to be monitored by civilian oversight. The mission of the IRP is to improve the way County Government serves the public. Complaints are investigated by the involved department, which submits its written findings to the IRP. The findings are discussed in an informal mediated fact-finding and dispute resolution meeting, attended by one Panel member, Panel staff, the complainant and a representative from the involved department. The accused employee is invited to participate, but attendance cannot be compelled. A report is then submitted to the full Panel for public review. The Panel's disposition and recommendations are sent to the involved department, County Manager, Mayor and Commissioners. The focus of the Panel is review, but it can conduct investigations as needed. Its subpoena power is limited to retaliation complaints as defined by a specific ordinance. The Panel may also review complaints against municipal departments, when requested to do so by the municipality.

In May 2001, an ordinance made PARC a permanent part of the City Code. PARC is not a division of the Knoxville Police Department. PARC has the authority to conduct its own investigations regardless of the final outcome of a completed case. PARC may request additional information regarding completed KPD IAU cases, but only the Chief of Police may impose disciplinary actions on officers. PARC also has the authority to review the KPD Policies and Procedures and make recommendations for change and or improvement. The mission of the Police Advisory and Review Committee (PARC) is to provide the citizens of the City of Knoxville a civilian oversight committee to audit the discipline process and the policies and procedures of the Knoxville Police Department (KPD). The purpose is to strengthen the relationship between the citizens of the City of Knoxville and the KPD, to assure timely, fair and objective review of citizen complaints while protecting the individual rights of police officers, and to make recommendations concerning citizen complaints to the Chief of Police, the Mayor and to the Council. PARC accepts complaints from anyone, including anonymous, who is a victim, witness, or who has knowledge of alleged police misconduct. All complaints are processed by the Executive Director, except for complaints that have previously been referred to the Internal Affairs Unit of the Knoxville Police Department. Those complaints will be reviewed by the Executive Director and Committee following the completion of the Internal Affairs Unit's investigation. The Executive Director is responsible for monitoring the progress of cases being investigated by KPD IAU. If the complaint has not been referred to the KPD IAU, the complaint may be reviewed by the Executive Director or it may be turned over to IAU for formal investigation based on the preliminary discussion between the complainant and the Executive Director. If the complainant does not wish a formal investigation with KPD IAU, the Executive Director will make every effort to

The civilian director has the authority to direct the classification and investigation of complaints and to make the final findings on all cases other than sustained. The Chief retains final authority over sustained cases. The OPA has three primary objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) To provide civilian review of the citizen complaint process; 2) To recommend strategies and policies to improve the complaint investigation function and other practices within the Department to raise professional standards; and, 3) To promote public awareness of the OPA. Together, these functions provide significantly enhanced police accountability. The OPA Review Board consists of three citizens appointed by the City Council. Their responsibility is to strengthen the system of police accountability by providing an independent review of the OPA, thereby building confidence and credibility in police-community relations in Seattle. The board reviews completed, randomly selected investigations and advises Seattle officials on policies and procedures to strengthen the police accountability system. The Board also receives input from stakeholders including the community and department employees to assist in the development of trends, issues and suggestions for improvements that can be provided to the City Council. The OPA Auditor is a part-time contract civilian position independent of the Seattle Police Department and is appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council.
