News of Special Interest to BART Customers

Because so many of you are on vacation between December 24, 2008 through December 31, 2008, we are canceling a few rush hour trains. However, trains will run at least every 15 minutes on the Pittsburg/Bay Point – SFO line during the morning and evening rush periods. Below is a list of those canceled trains. The list of canceled trains shows the station and time when the train would normally start its journey. Please pick up a “BART Fares and Schedules” brochure to determine when the train would depart your favorite station if it were to run.
